

Public sector apprenticeship target report
The Priory Learning Trust
Statutory return September 2022

The government have set a target for public sector bodies, 2.3% of their current workforce (based on headcount) are to be apprentices.

The government have requested public sector bodies to publish their number of apprenticeships annually and report this data to the Department for Education. The first year of annual publication for The Priory Learning Trust was for the period 01 April 2018 to 31 March 2019.

There are 6 questions to be answered and published, they are as follows:

Question	Answer
Number of employees who were working in England on 31 March 2021	738
Number of employees who were working in England on 31 March 2022	902
Number of new employees who started working for you in England between 1 April 2021 and 31 March 2022	26
Number of apprentices who were working in England on 31 March 2021	28
Number of apprentices who were working in England on 31 March 2022	24
Number of new apprentices in England between 1 April 2021 to 31 March 2022 (includes both new hires and existing employees who started an apprenticeship)	7

Reporting percentages

Percentage of apprenticeship starts (both new hires and existing employees who started an apprenticeship) as a proportion of employment starts between 1 April 2021 and 31 March 2022	26.92%
Percentage of total headcount that were apprentices on 31 March 2022	2.66%
Percentage of apprenticeship starts (both new hires and existing employees who started an apprenticeship) between 1 April 2020 and 31 March 2021 as a proportion of total headcount on 31 March 2020	0.95%